

New England Program for Kidney Exchange

Summit 2009

May 11, 2009

10:00 AM – 1:00PM

Registration and continental breakfast 9:30AM

No registration fee

Beechwood Hotel

363 Plantation Street

Worcester MA 01605

Phone: 508-754-5789

www.beechwoodhotel.com

Agenda

Welcome

*Francis L. Delmonico, MD, Director of Medical Affairs, The Transplantation Society
World Health Organization, Advisory for Human Transplantation
Professor of Surgery, Harvard Medical School, Massachusetts General Hospital
Medical Director, New England Organ Bank*

Experience of a KPD Donor

Bob Ravenelle, Living Kidney Donor

The Current State of Transplantation and Kidney Donation

Kevin J. O'Connor, MS, PA, CPT, Senior VP, New England Organ Bank

The Current State of Paired Kidney Donation

*Shimul Shah, MD Transplant Surgery, UMASS Memorial Medical Center
Assistant Professor of Surgery, University of Massachusetts Medical School*

The Exchange Process: What is Working Well? What Can We Do Better?

Ruthanne L. Hanto, RN MPH, Clinical Program Manager, New England Organ Bank

List Exchange Chains: What Rules Apply?

*Martha Pavlakis, MD, Medical Director, Kidney and Pancreas Transplantation Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center
Associate Professor, Medicine, Harvard Medical School*

Cold Ischemic Time in Living Kidney Donation: The Impact on Paired Donation

*Dorry Segev, MD, Associate Professor of Surgery
Director of Clinical Research, Johns Hopkins Comprehensive Transplant Center*

Discussing KPD with Donors and Recipients: Getting the Conversation Started

Jayne Galley-Reilley, RN Transplant Coordinator, Massachusetts General Hospital

Moving to a National Kidney Paired Donation System

*Ken Andreoni, MD, Department of Transplantation Ohio State University Medical Center
Chair UNOS Kidney Paired Donation Subcommittee
Elizabeth F. Sleeman, MHA Policy Analyst, United Network for Organ Sharing*

